DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's response to non-final rejection dated July 6, 2006 along with a translation of the priority document is hereby acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wong (US 6,545,293). Wong discloses a method for manufacturing a semiconductor device comprising (Fig. 4D-4E): providing a substrate (41); forming a photoresist layer (60) over the substrate (41); forming a conductive layer (62) over the photoresist layer (60); and simultaneously removing the photoresist layer and the conductive layer (col. 3, Ins 52-55).

Regarding claim 17, Wong discloses the step of simultaneously removing the photoresist layer and the conductive layer is performed by etching (col. 3, Ins 52-55).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2813

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wong (US 6,545,293) in view of Cleeves (US 6,004,874). Wong discloses all claim limitations as set forth in claim 14 but fails to disclose wherein the photoresist is either a positive or negative photoresist. Cleeves does disclose that the photoresist can be either positive or negative (col. 5, lns 41-52). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of applicant's invention to use either a positive or negative photoresist so that there is more control over the region covered with the photoresist upon further development steps in the manufacturing process.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wong (US 6,545,293) in view of Jen (US 6,274,400). Wong discloses all claim limitations set forth in claim 14 but fails to disclose wherein the conductive layer is formed from a metal or metal oxide. Jen, however, does disclose that the conductive layer is formed of a metal (col. 3, lns 48-67). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of applicant's invention to use one of the metals mentioned by Jen with the invention of Wong for the conductive properties any one of those metals contain.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest, in combination with the other claimed limitations, depositing a photoresist over an active layer, performing a photolithography process and subsequently removing the active layer at the source/drain region.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
